- Army ROTC program overview

Visio n

To prepare the most competent highly trained future leaders by increasing their community and campus awareness and exposure to the leadership development process

Missio n

To be the school of choice for perspective students by consistently recruiting, mentoring, retaining, training

commissioning the best cadet possible

Battalion's History

In 1919, the Department of the Army established an Infantry Branch of the Senior ROTC program at the university

In 1919, Lieutenant Robert L. Campbell was appointed as the PMS of the program

In 1947, the program commissioned eight second lieutenants in the infantry

In 1954, program was converted from an infantry specific unit to General Military Studies (GMS)

In Sept 1968, ROTC became an elective course at NCA&T SU

As of 15 Dec 2000, the unit has been in operation for 52 years and has commissioned over 1500 officers

Band of Excellence

- More than half the current active duty Generals Officers are products of the ROTC system. To date, we have produced five General Officers:

MG Charles Bussey (Class of 55)

BG Clara Adams-Ender (Class of 62)

BG Voneree Deloateh (Class of 64)

MG Reginal G. Clemons (Class of 68)
